A child's eye view of What is a Grandmother?

"A grandmother is a lady who has no children of her own, so she likes other people's little boys and girls. A grandfather is a man grandmother. Grandmas don't have to do anything except be there. They're old, so they shouldn't play hard or run. It is enough if they drive us to the market where the pretend horse is and have lots of dimes ready. Usually grandmas are fat, but not too fat to tie kids' shoes. They wear glasses and they can take their teeth out and gums off! They don't have to be smart ... only answer questions like why dogs chase cats and how come God isn't married? They don't talk Baby Talk like visitors do because it is hard to understand and when they read to us they don't skip words or mind if it is the same story over and over again. Everyone should try to have a Grandma especially if they don't have a television, because grandmothers are the only grownups who really ever seem to have any time for children!"

A minister waited in line to have his car filled with gas just before a long holiday weekend. The attendant worked quickly, but there were many cars ahead of him. Finally, the attendant motioned to him toward a vacant pump. "Reverend, I'm sorry about the delay. It seems that everyone waits until the last minute to get ready for a long trip." The minister chuckled, "I know what you mean. It's the same in my business!"

A police officer in a small town stopped a motorist who was speeding down Main Street. "But Officer," said the driver, "I can explain-" Save your excuses," said the cop. "You can cool your heels in jail till the chief gets back." "But Officer..." "Quiet!" snapped the cop. "You're going to jail the chief will deal with you when he gets back." A few hours later the officer looks in at the prisoner. "Lucky for you that the chief's at his daughter's wedding. It means he'll be in a good mood when he gets back." "Don't count on it," said the prisoner. "I'm the groom."

I was out walking with my 4 year old daughter. She picked up something off the ground and started to put it in her mouth. I took the item away from her and I asked her not to do that.

"Why?" my daughter asked.

"Because it's been on the ground, you don't know where it's been, it's dirty and probably has germs," I replied.

At this point, my daughter looked at me with total admiration and asked, "Mommy, how do you know all this stuff? You are so smart."

I was thinking quickly. "All moms know this stuff. It's on the Mommy Test. You have to know it or they don't let you be a Mommy."

We walked along in silence for 2 or 3 minutes but she was evidently pondering this new information.

"Oh, I get it," she beamed, "So if you don't pass the test you have to be the daddy."

"Exactly," I replied back with a big smile on my face.

THE DIFFERENCE

I got up early one morning
and rushed right into the day;
I had so much to accomplish
that I didn't have time to pray.

Problems just tumbled about me
and heavier came each task;
"Why doesn't God help me?" I wondered
He said, "But you didn't ask."

I wanted to see joy and beauty
but the day toiled on, gray and bleak;
I wondered why God didn't show me.
He said, "But you didn't seek."

I tried to come into God's presence;
I used all my keys at the lock.
God gently and lovingly chided
"My Child, you didn't knock."

I woke up early this morning
And paused before entering the day.
I had so much to accomplish
That I had to take time to pray.

1) If you love something, set it free. If it comes back, it will always be yours. If it doesn't come back, it was never yours to begin with. But, if it just sits in your living room, messes up your stuff, eats your food, uses your telephone, takes your money, and doesn't appear to realize that you had set it free... You either married it or gave birth to it.

2) Reason to smile: Every 7 minutes of every day, someone in an aerobics class pulls a hamstring.

3) My mind not only wanders, it sometimes leaves completely.

4) The best way to forget all your troubles is to wear tight shoes.

5) The nice part about living in a small town: When you don't know what you're doing, someone else always does.

6) Just when I was getting used to yesterday, along came today.

7) Sometimes I think I understand everything, then I regain consciousness.

8) Amazing! You hang something in your closet for a while and it shrinks two sizes!

9) They keep telling us to get in touch with our bodies. Mine isn't all that communicative but I heard from it the other day after I said, "Body, how'd you like to go to the six o'clock class in vigorous toning?" Clear as a bell my body said, "Listen fatty do it and die!!"

10) I read this article that said the typical symptoms of stress are eating too much, impulse buying, & driving too fast. Are they kidding? That's my idea of a perfect day.

11) If men can run the world, why can't they stop wearing neckties? How intelligent is it to start the day by tying a noose around your neck?

Always believe something wonderful is going to happen. Even with all the ups and downs, never take a day for granted. Smile, cherish the little things and remember to hug the ones you really love.

LIFE BEFORE THE COMPUTER

An application was for employment

A cursor used profanity

Memory was something you lost with age

Compress was what you did to garbage

Log on was adding wood to a fire

A mouse pad was where a mouse lived

Cut - you did with a pocket knife

A web was a spider's home

I guess I'll stick to my pad and paper

Nobody's been killed in a computer crash... but when it happens they wish they were dead!

A program was a TV show

A keyboard was a piano

A CD was a bank account

Not something you did to a file

Hard drive was a long trip on the road

A backup happened to your commode!

Paste you did with glue

And a virus was the flu!

And the memory in my head

Nothing is quite so annoying as to have someone go right on talking when you're interrupting.

The most valuable gift you can give another is a good example.

A good supervisor is someone who can step on your toes without messing up your shine.

Two caterpillars were crawling across the grass when a butterfly flew over them. They looked up, and one nudged the other and said: "You couldn't get me up in one of those things for a million dollars!"

The person who gets ahead is the one who does more than is necessary – and keeps on doing it.
